Outreach Initiatives

For period ending September 30, 2017

February 20 – 24, 2017; 9:15a – 10:50a

Career Days at Tiyan High School was attended by Power 98 Mid-Day Host Charles “Mama Char” Catbagan and Program Director Kyle Mandapat, where they explained the different departments of our organization and the possible career fields available. They were invited by Kimberly Castro Salas

September 13, 2016

Guam High School Seniors via the Career Practicum Program, particularly Hailey Jones, interned as reporter. She worked on specialty shows: FAST (Featured Athlete Sports Talk) and Live Life Healthy which is featured in Pacific News Center segments. She did interviews of Liberators and promoted Facebook presence and other Social Media. She edited stories that were posted onto website.

July 7, 2017

University of Guam Internship Program and our company have established an internship program. The students who are soon to be graduates complete tasks/projects that we request within the context of a classroom setting. We commit to provide 180 hours of training and supervision to the students who are applying and learning in the Communications Dept. We were sent us 2 interns: Robert Miyasaki and Jase Sarmiento. Jase Sarmiento was hired as a photographer on August 28, 2017.

May 27, 2017

Agana Shopping Center Career Fair was an outreach event attended by Program Director, Kyle Mandapat, VP of Administration, Margaret Agulto, Radio Sales Manager, Doris Quichocho. We participated in this event which offers services to veterans, persons with disabilities, the homeless, and youths at risk. We accepted and interviewed all those interested in our Broadcasting Industry.
